MORE Easter Egg Scavenger Hunt Clues

It’s time for the Egg Hunt! Did your heart skip a beat?! We’re starting things off with things you put on your feet.

For the next clue you long to acquire, head to the laundry room and check in the dryer.

Cereal for breakfast or an afternoon snack and now it is where your next clue will attack.

When this is all over, you will find it laughable that one of the clues was with the stuffed animals.
Take your time and go as slow as molasses. Your very next clue is stored with the glasses.

It goes with you to school and holds all of your books, but searching through it isn’t as easy as it looks.

Are you having such fun or getting tired and bored? If it’s another hint that you seek, check the silverware drawer.

This hunt just keeps going and seems to get larger, find your hint where you need a phone charger.

You’ve proven yourself a scavenger hunt champ. Now find the next clue in the living room lamp.

Keeping things cold… could it be any greater? Why YES! The next clue is held in the refrigerator.
At the end of the day, when everything is done and said, you’ll want to put these on before heading to bed.

For your next clue, don’t travel the universe. Just take a quick trip to your mother’s purse.

For those that are searching without grumbles and growls, you’ll find what you need among the linens and towels.

We are nearing the end... there’s no need to rush. You can find your last clue by your toothbrush.

Keep on looking to find a really sweet treat, your scavenger treasure is where we sit down to eat.